Sanya is...

a famous coastal tourist city in Hainan (China's largest tropical island), filled with tropical landscapes and local customs. Its coastlines are highlighted by natural beaches, fresh sea breezes and crystal-clear waters.

Tian Ya Hai Jian known as 'the end of the earth' features clear water, coconut palms and grotesque rocks.

Luhuitou Park provides picturesque view of Sanya.

Nanshan Temple is the home of the world's tallest "Guanyin", the goddess of infinite compassion and mercy in Buddhism.

Yalong Bay is known as the No.1 Beach in Sanya

Dadonghai, Sanya, Haitang, and Yazhou, and Xiangshuiwan Bay are the five major bays in Sanya, Xiangshuiwan Bay remains the most beautiful and natural near the famous Nuilin Mountain

Butterfly park

An aerial, top-down view of a resort pool area. The pool is a vibrant blue, winding through a sandy and paved deck. A person is swimming in the pool. The deck is furnished with red lounge chairs and a large red umbrella. Lush greenery, including several palm trees and a large, dense tree, surrounds the pool. The word "Resort" is written in a white, elegant script font across the center of the image.

Key marker: The Pineapple

WHY?

Hainan is renowned for its quality of pineapples. The tropical fruit is trendy, happy, colourful and loaded with vitamins.

HOW?

The Pineapple is emphasized through design details and colours in the resort (e.g. spaces with splash of colours and F&B: restaurant menu revamp with a tropical twist and pineapple juices at the bar).
